

C R Krieger
(978) 835-2598
crkrieger@me.com

Objective: A Seat on the School Committee of the Greater Lowell Technical High School.

Current Employment: Intermittent Worker at Dynamics Research Corporation

DRC Employment: 1994- 2010

Supervisor for 66 individuals involved in providing training analysis and products for five of the seven uniformed services and joint and combined agencies.

Worked with Raytheon and SAIC, developing knowledge engineering documents to provide input to software engineers in creating a software program modeling Joint Air Operations.

Early work involved development of a military readiness program based upon identification of Tasks, Conditions and Standards, using a dictionary of common joint military tasks and conditions.

US Air Force: 1964-1994

Professor, National War College, as Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff Chair and as Core Course Director.

Chief, Joint Staff J-5 Strategy Division.

Commander, 86th Tactical Fighter Wing.

Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff, Plans and Program, Headquarters, United States Air Forces in Europe.

Chief, US Air Force Headquarters Doctrine Division.

Student, Army War College.

Various flying and staff positions in Viet-nam, Germany, Thailand, Italy, Alaska and the Philippines. Attended the Royal Air Force Staff College, RAF Bracknell, UK. Served at (NATO) Headquarters, Allied Air Forces Southern Europe.

Other Activities:

Member of the Lowell City Government "Ending Homelessness in Ten Years" Education and Conferences Subcommittee.

Education: Bachelor of Science, US Air Force Academy, 1964, Masters of Management, 1969, three courses short of a Bachelor of Arts, UMass Continuing Education. Graduate of the National War College.

Publications: Co authored with Dr Janet Breslin, The National War College: A History of Strategic Thinking in Peace and War.