

WILLIAM IVERS JOHNSTON

7 CHESTER STREET

WATERTOWN, MA 02472

617-923-4739

wij@world.std.com

Education

- HARVARD COLLEGE 1985 Cambridge, MA. Bachelor of Arts summa cum laude in Visual and Environmental Studies (graphic design and film studies). Phi Beta Kappa. F. Skiddy von Stade Essay Award. John Harvard Scholarship.
- WESTON HIGH 1981 Weston, MA. First Honors. National Merit Scholar. Presidential Scholar Finalist. National Honor Society. Advanced Placement in Calculus, Physics, English literature, and French language.

Experience

- TEXTBOOK EDITOR Houghton Mifflin Company, Boston, MA. Work with authors to create secondary school mathematics materials, including 4-color student textbooks, teacher editions, overhead visuals, assessment booklets, computer software, and documentation. Develop, copyedit, and proofread manuscript. Collaborate with art editors to establish photo and illustration specifications. Prepare artwork for overhead visuals. Design and debug educational software. Created color cover designs for Mathematics Teacher magazine. (1988–present)
- MATHEMATICS TEACHER Weston High School, Weston, MA. Taught Algebra I, Geometry, and Algebra II. (1987–1988)
- MULTIMEDIA DESIGNER The Townscape Institute, Cambridge, MA. Did research, photography, copywriting, and screen layout for an interactive computer city-guide to inform tourists visiting Cincinnati's 1988 Bicentennial celebration. (1987)
- ASSISTANT EDITOR Harvard Student Agencies, Cambridge, MA. Prepared maps and edited manuscript for Let's Go: Europe (New York: St. Martin's, 1986), a budget travel guide. 130,000 copies sold worldwide. (1985)

Other

- MACINTOSH Microsoft Word, QuarkXPress, Macromedia FreeHand, Adobe Illustrator.
- LANGUAGES Near-fluent in French and Italian.
- BOOK WORK Wrote HIV-Negative: How the Uninfected Are Affected by AIDS (New York: Plenum Press–Insight Books, 1995), a book about the psychological and social issues facing uninfected gay men. (1992–1995) ISBN 0-306-44951-X paperback, ISBN 0-306-44947-1 hardcover, 332 pp. For more information, see my WORLD WIDE WEB page at <http://world.std.com/~wij/index.html>.